Scoring: How to Identify Stableford Par for 10 Golfers

Each club will be required to identify the Par and SSS of the course which will identify what the individual will need to achieve to 'play to handicap'. I.e. Par 72, SSS 71 player needs to achieve 37 points to play to handicap. These are then added together to give you the Club score. This can be adjusted from the Par/SSS of the course (Total Club score - Par/SSS x 10).

Example:

Club A – Par 71, SSS 72 = 35 points to play to handicap.

35 points x 10 = 350 points

Player 1 – 42

Player 2 – 41

Player 3 – 40

Player 4 – 40

Player 5 – 39

Player 6 – 39

Player 7 – 39

Player 8 – 38

Player 9 – 38

Player 10 – 37

Total 393

393 – 350 gives Club score of 43 points.

The easiest way to explain is to base everything against 36 points.

SSS - Par. If it is a + number take it from 36 points. If it is a minus number add it to 36 points.

E.G.

SSS 72, Par 70 = 2 36 minus 2 = 34 points required to play to handicap

SSS 69, Par 71 = -2 36 plus 2 = 38 points required to play to handicap

Thank you.
